Visual Art

There followed a long period of illustrative realism. Extensive travelling and long stays in Paris, New York and other cities have led Andreas Jaeggi quite naturally towards the theme of cityscapes ("City Impressions"). Later, he was passing through a "Blue Period" which included still lifes, urban architectural views and nudes. Besides continuing the urban impressionist theme, his newest three-dimensional sculptural / installation work as well as his movement studies "Art in Motion" also express Andreas Jaeggi's artistic views.
